CANADIAN TROOPS DEFEAT GERMANS

LOSSES WERE VERY GREAT

Ran Out of Ammunition and Grenades and Had to Give Up Part of the Conquered Works, But Evened Score.

By HERBERT TEMPLE, International News Service Correspondent. London, June 28.—Canadian troops have again been called upon to beat the best soldiers in the German army, and once more they have succeeded. The gallant soldiers from America were sent into action at La Basse in a three-day battle lasting from June 15 to 18. They captured four lines of the German trenches, but part of these had to be relinquished because the Canadian ammunition had been exhausted.

Narrative From Front.

"With other British forces the Canadians were ordered to take the German trenches in a sector at La Basse. The Canadians were led in the undertaking by the First Ontario regiment, with the third Toronto regiment acting as a support.

"After a cannoneade the Canadians made a bayonet charge with great gallantry. In less than fifteen minutes they were in full possession of the first line of German trenches. There they paused only for a moment.

"They then went tearing at the second line, which they carried gallantly. In a few minutes the third and fourth lines were assailed and carried.

"The Canadians followed at the heels of the fleeing enemy, giving him no time to rally his forces. The battle at once began to consolidate the conquered positions, but finally the Germans made a stand and opened a counter-attack.

"In the meantime the Canadians' ammunition had run low. Their gunners had been expended in carrying the four lines of trenches. They resisted the counter-attack obstinately, but finally, under a shower of shells and grenades the gallant Canadians had to relinquish the front lines of trenches.

Canadian Losses Heavy.

"In the partial retirement which followed," continues the narrative, "the Canadian losses were very heavy. During the night of June 15 the Second brigade relieved the First brigade and the Ontarians.

"On the night of June 16-17 the Germans delivered a heavy counter-attack against the lines held by the Second Canadian brigade. This evened up the score. The Canadian riflemen waited until the attack had developed strength, and then wiped the German infantry out of existence. Few Germans got back to their lines."

CAPTURE A RAILROAD CENTER

Vilna, June 28.—Chodorow, a town of Galicia southeast of Lemberg, at which four railroad centers, has been captured by Austrian troops, who are now proceeding down the Dniester river to assist the German troops of General von Linsingen near Illicz.

Though the Russians have gained a slight success near Illicz, forcing back to the south bank of the Dniester the German troops who had crossed, the arrival of the Austrians from Chodorow is expected to terminate the Dniester campaign in a complete victory for the Austro-German forces.

AUSTRO-GERMANS CONTINUE BATTLE BIG GERMAN GUNS FOR WARSAW DASH

RUSS CLEAR NORTH BANK

Petrograd Officially Reports Several Successes for the Czar's Forces, But Admits a German Success in Valley of Orzye River.

By FRANCIS LAVELLE MURRAY, International News Service Correspondent.

Petrograd, June 28.—German troops have been cleared from the north bank of the Dniester river in the Kozan district of Galicia, the Russian war office announces, and in the Martynov region the czar's troops have captured remnants of the Teutonic forces who were trapped on the north bank when General Linsingen's forces had been hurled back.

Despite the victory of the Russians in the early stages of the fighting on the Dniester, however, the Austro-German forces are continuing their attempts to cross the river from the south bank and hard fighting is in progress along the front.

Several Russ Successes.

The latest official report from Grand Duke Nicholas records successes for the Russian forces at several points along the battle front extending from the Baltic provinces to Bokhina, but admits a German success in the valley of the Orzye river, northern Poland, where the Russians evacuated fortifications which the Kaiser's artillery had completely destroyed.

The grand duke's report shows that the Teutonic allies are on the offensive along the Poland-Galicia front, but at no point have they been successful in their efforts to smash through the Russian lines. The report of the grand duke follows:

"Thursday night and Friday there was an artillery duel in the Shavil region. There were outposts encounters on the front of Liatkovo and Popielany, as well as on the right bank of the Niemea.

"West of the middle Niemea a night advance by the Germans between the Kovno-Wirballe railway and Amalba was repulsed by the Russian artillery fire.

"On the Narew front the fighting was confined to sharp artillery firing and local outpost encounters. The firing was most violent during the night of the 21st in the district of the Omlow and Orzye valley. After artillery preparations the Germans took the offensive along the rivers, but were soon stopped.

"In this section we took in the Omlow section 80 prisoners, but in the Orzye valley we were forced to give way. One of our works was completely destroyed by the Germans' annihilating fire and we were forced to evacuate it.

"On the Vistula, from south of the Pilica, the Germans yesterday three times attempted to make headway with weak effectiveness west of Czestochowa, but were repulsed with great losses.

"On the Tanew front, in the direction of Koikiew and Lemberg there was no important change. The Austro-Germans attempted to attack us along the railway leading from Lemberg to Kamenetz and Brzezany.

"On the Dniester river during the night of the 23d we drove back beyond the river the remainder of the Germans who crossed the previous day in the Kozan district.

Fighting Continues. In the region of Martynov-Stryj, on the evening of the 23d we captured the remnants of the Germans who had crossed the Dniester by bridges constructed south of Lukowiczowice, they having previously only crossed near the village of Roudzhevany. The fighting continues."

General Linsingen is continuing his attack on the northern bank of the Dniester. Fighting continues between the Dniester and Lemberg. The Russians held the right bank of the river.

HUERTA ARRESTED

TO BE USED AGAINST RUSS

Teutonia Lost 130,000 Prisoners and 300 Machine Guns in Recent Operations in Galicia, as Report From Petrograd.

London, June 28.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says several trains loaded with heavy guns have left Essen for the German front on the Bzura river in Poland, where it is believed they will be used in an advance against Warsaw.

Always Driven Back.

Since the fall of Lemberg military experts here have expressed the belief that the Austro-German allies would not be content with forcing the Russians beyond the borders of Galicia, but would attempt to continue their terrific drive and capture Warsaw, the capital of Poland. On previous occasions the Germans have hammered their way to a point almost within artillery range of Warsaw, but have been driven back by the forces under command of Grand Duke Nicholas.

The success of the Teutonic allies in the Galician campaign was due largely to a preponderance of artillery and the expenditure of an overwhelming number of shells. If additional heavy guns have been sent from Essen, where the famous Krupp works are situated, it would seem indicative of an intention to continue in Poland operations of a similar nature.

Capture 130,000 of Foe.

The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Mail, commenting on the fact that the Russian army has remained intact during seven weeks' retreat in Galicia, says this army has inflicted tremendous losses on the enemy, having captured in the course of these operations 130,000 men, nearly 300 machine guns and 60 cannon. He continues:

"That the Russian ranks are firm is proved by their successes on the Dniester and Tanew rivers. The military organ, the Russky Invalid, suggests that the only thing that now matters is to keep the enemy occupied while Russia's allies in the West are getting up strength. It is generally conceded that the Russians will evacuate more territory, if it is necessary, in order to find favorable positions on which to make a stand."

BIG LOCKOUT FOR CHICAGO

Chicago, June 28.—Employees of scores of building material manufacturers were notified to prepare for a shutdown at the first step in a movement to force 16,000 striking carpenters to return to work and restore employment to 125,000 men in the allied building trades. The action followed a decision of a joint committee representing the allied building material manufacturers. Plans were formulated by the committee to throw 200,000 additional men out of work in order that independent carpenter contractors who have signed the carpenters' agreement may not obtain material.

WISCONSIN DRIES WIN VICTORY

Madison, Wis., June 28.—The Baker liquor law, which limits the number of saloons in the various cities of Wisconsin, was upheld by Gov. E. L. TURKS SURPRISE ALLIES.

Constantinople, June 28.—An official statement issued here said: "During the night of the 23d one of our right wing's patrols surprised and destroyed an enemy party near Sardulah, putting their machine guns out of action besides capturing rifles, ammunition and other booty."

LINER ATTACK IS CONFIRMED.

New York.—Confirmation of the submarine attack made upon the American liner Cameronia Sunday, June 20, as she was making for Liverpool, was brought in by the American liner Philadelphia, which arrived from Liverpool. Both the American liner and Capt. James Khanford, of the Cameronia, issued emphatic denials that the liner had been in peril. The passengers, however, were equally as emphatic that submarines had attempted to sink the Cameronia.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

McCHESNEY SPEAKS TO TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED.

Last Monday witnessed the biggest crowd that has assembled in West Liberty to hear a political speech in a decade. Hon. H. V. McChesney was billed to speak here on that day and early in the day it became evident that the court house would not hold a sixth of the people, and arrangements were made to have the speaking at Highland Park, one half mile east of town. Notwithstanding the dust and the distance, the crowd cheerfully walked out to that beautiful grove, and at 1:45 Mr. McChesney began his speech to more than twenty-five hundred people, several hundred of whom were ladies.

The crowd stayed and listened attentively for about two hours to one of the most effective speeches that has been delivered in the campaign. Mr. McChesney did not attempt any oratorical flights. His speech was one that went direct to the hearts of the people. It was, as he said, the presentation of the human side of the liquor question, and in a masterly manner he stated the principles upon which his campaign was pitched.

He compared the human side, the home-love side of the question with that of the financial side, and also proved that the revenue producing power of the liquor traffic was more than offset by the cost of the criminal prosecutions that it caused. He held up the balance with the dollar in one end and the destroyed boy in the other for the people to choose between.

Strong men wept during the speech and the applause was frequent and hearty. At the conclusion of the speech the ladies in the audience arose and sang: "Kentucky's Going Dry."

McChesney's speech strengthened him immeasurably in this county, scores of men who had heretofore been for other candidates came to him after the meeting and told him that they were for him now, and several prominent republicans announced that they would support him in November. The crowd, its evident sympathy with the views of Mr. McChesney, and the indisputable evidence that the sentiment of the county is irresistably turned to his support must have greatly encouraged the champion of the State-wide cause.

TO ALL DEMOCRATS.

I want, and will very much appreciate, your support in my race for Circuit Judge of the 32nd Judicial District, of Kentucky. I have only had a few months by appointment in this office, and it being customary to endorse for one term, this is my last chance to be elected Judge.

I will be confined to the work of enforcing the law and can not visit you in person. If the usual electioneering stories are started it will be for the purpose of misleading you. Please disregard them and give me your support that I may for one term carry out the reforms that I have begun.

Yours truly,
M. M. REDWINE.

Let's not forget that the republicans are polishing their guns for us in November. Let's not say anything about any democratic candidate that we can't take back. None of us know who our nominees will be.

—o—

The Salyersville Herald, Magoffin county's new paper, edited by D. Glenn Sublett, reached our desk last week. It is a well edited, newsy 7 column folio, and the COURIER predicts for it a full measure of success. Magoffin county is able and ought to support a newspaper decently.

—o—

'Tis passing strange that people will never learn that unsigned articles will not be published. We recently received an article concerning the election of our good friend Leon D. Nickell, of Daysboro, to the principalship of the Stearns Graded and High School. The article was print-able and would have been of interest to a great number of our readers, but the writer failed to sign his or her name, so the only thing we could do was to consign it to the waste basket.

It is amusing to read the plea of "confession and avoidance" that the republican editors of Kentucky are putting up for the brewers and distillers' platform convention recently held at Lexington under the auspices of governing authority of the republican party. Evidently the conversion of the brewers, distillers and saloon keepers to the county unit theory is very recent, but from the ardent fervor with which they are supporting it the uninformed might conclude that they were the originators of the idea instead of favoring it as their last hope for existence in Kentucky.

Poor Ed Morrow! What a millstone about his neck! Ninety per cent. of the bone and sinew of the republican party—the rank and file—are anti-liquor people, yet Ed Morrow must appeal to them from a band wagon whose drivers, horses and all attaches are under the domination of the liquor crowd; upon a platform made in a convention dominated and controlled by the brewers and distillers.

No wonder the republican editors writhe and squirm at the party lash that drives them to support him.

IGNORE THE DEMAGOGUE; APPEAL TO THE MAN.

Every informed thinking man sees not alone the threatened dangers of but the damage now being wrought by the propaganda of radicalism in this country. But so few are informed.

The threatened danger is that the uninformed, led by self-seeking dishonest demagogues, will be swept off their feet by their specious argument and, thus, the country swept into social chaos. The present damage is that of what we call "social unrest"—strikes, destruction of property, loss of wages, a spirit of law defiance, and, worst of all, distrust and class-hatred. And as thinking men, we admit both the threatened danger and the present damage. But what are we going to do about it?

There can be but one answer to the foregoing question. Informed thinking men must make it their business to teach the uninformed thinking man that along the way the demagogues are trying to lead him lies madness. The radical leaders are speaking to him every day in lurid page and with poisoned tongue; give him cool reasoning and self-convincing facts as antidotes. If the threatened dangers become facts in this country, the blame will be upon the employers of labor for neglecting their duty to inform their workmen; if the present damage is suffered to continue, the blame will fall in the same place.

DON'T TALK OR ACT HASTILY.

It has been suggested to us that certain references to the United States Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky, made by one of our correspondents in a recent issue, might be misconstrued, or perhaps wilfully misinterpreted, by someone whose shoes are pinching them, so to speak. The reference that our correspondent made to the Federal Court was the cost of litigation in that Court—that and that alone. It is true that if a citizen of Morgan county should be compelled to defend the title of his home in the Federal Court the cost would be almost if not absolutely prohibitive. Attorney fees, railroad fare, hotel bills and loss of time to the litigant would soon eat up the price of an average farm.

The people of this county are a little impatient because of the delay of the decision in the case of the Sewell heirs against Collier and others, but the delay is due solely to the dilatory tactics of the attorneys for the plaintiffs, and Judge Cochran is in nowise responsible for it. The record in the case was not forwarded to him until a few weeks ago.

We would respectfully ask of those who don't seem to understand, that they withhold criticism until they know whom to criticize.

The broadmindedness and fairness of Judge A. M. J. Cochran is proverbial. The people of Morgan county can rest assured that when they are in the right their interests are safe in his hands.

Henry Blake's Father.

Henry Blake's father goes fishing with him, And goes in the creek so's to teach him to swim; He talks to him just like they're awful close chums And sometimes at night he helps Henry do sums; And once he showed Henry how he used to make A basket by whittling a peach-stone, and take The bark off willows for whistles, although He hadn't made one since a long time ago.

Henry Blake's father is just like his chum,

And when he goes fishing he lets Henry come;

Fixes two seats on the bank of the brook

And some little thing that he hears Henry say,

And dips up a drink in his hat like you do

When only just boys go a-fishing with you

Henry Blake's father will take him and stay

Somewhere in the woods for a half-holiday,

And wear his old clothes and bring home a big sack

Of hick'ries and walnuts to help Henry crack;

And sit on a dead log somewhere in the shade

To eat big sandwiches his mother has made;

And Henry Blake's father, he don't seem as though

He's more than his uncle, he likes Henry so!

United States informs World Interference With Trade Must Cease.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. New York.—The following is a note which was handed to the Chinese Government May 16 by the American Minister at Pekin, acting under orders from the State Department at Washington:

"In view of the circumstances of the negotiations which have taken place, or which are pending between the government of China and the government of Japan, and the agreements which have been reached and as a result thereof, the government of the United States has the honor to notify the government of the Chinese Republic that it can not recognize any agreement or undertaking which has been entered into, or which may be entered into, between the governments of China and Japan, impairing the treaty rights of the United States and its citizens in China, the political or territorial integrity of China or the international policy commonly known as the open door policy."

An identical note was transmitted to the Japanese government by the American Ambassador at Tokyo. The United States placed itself squarely on record that it maintained all its rights under the existing treaties and conventions, and indirectly informed the world and interested parties that the time must inevitably arrive when further interference with legitimate American commercial activities in China would be no longer tolerated. The issue in the Far East, arising out of the dispatch of the American note to China and Japan, has been lost sight of in the weightier questions created by the sinking of the Lusitania.

WARDEN'S WIFE IS MURDERED.

Joliet, Ill.—An investigating commission made the following statement with reference to the murder of the wife of Warden Allen, of the Illinois penitentiary here: "The wife of Warden Allen was murdered by a negro, who had been classified as an 'honor convict.' It is believed that he first made a criminal attack upon her. Then he killed her. She was alone in her sleeping apartments in the Warden's personal section of the penitentiary. The murderer poured alcohol upon her body and applied a match. He is within the walls of the prison."

SCORE CAUGHT IN UNDERTOW.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Buffeted by a huge wave and carried into deep water by a treacherous undertow, eight bathers, including prominent members of the Philadelphia summer colony, were drowned in the surf here. Scores of others were dragged to the beach in an unconscious condition after life guards and other bathers had battled desperately to save their lives. One other man was saved when six fishing smacks were used.

BANKERS URGED TO CO-OPERATE WITH FARMERS

SOUL MATERIAL HAS ENTERED THE BANK VAULTS OF THE NATION.

The Bank a Financial Power House to the Community.

By Peter Radford.

One of the greatest opportunities in the business life of the nation lies in practical co-operation of the country banks with the farmer in building agriculture and the adventure is laden with greater possibilities than any forward movement now before the American people.

A few bankers have loaned money to farmers at a low rate of interest, and oftentimes without compensation, to buy blooded livestock, build silos, fertilize the land, secure better seed, hold their products for a higher market price, etc. The banker in contributing toward improving the grade of livestock; the quality of the seed and the fertility of the soil, plants in the agricultural life of the community a fountain of profit, that like Tennyson's brook, runs on and on forever. Community Progress—a Bank Asset.

The time was when money loaned on such a basis would severely test the sanity of the banker; such transactions would pain the directors as a blow in the face. A cashier who would dare to cast bread upon waters that did not return buttered side up in time for annual dividends would have to give way to a more capable man. This does not necessarily mean that the bankers are getting any better or that the milk of human kindness is being imbued more freely by our financiers. It indicates that the bankers are getting wiser, becoming more able financiers and the banking industry more competent.

The vision of the builder is crowding out the spirit of the pawnbroker. A light has been turned on a new world of investment and no longer received as large returns on the investment as these progressive bankers, who made loans to uplift industry. The bankers have always been liberal city builders, but they are now building agriculture. A Dollar With a Soul.

It is refreshing to this strenuous commercial life to find so many bankers with souls. When a dollar is approached to perform a task that does not directly yield the highest rate of interest, we usually hear the rustle of the eagle's wings as it soars upward; when a dollar is requested to return at the option of the borrower, it usually appeals to the Goddess of Liberty for its contractual rights; when a dollar is asked to expand in volume to suit the requirements of industry, it usually talks solemnly of its redeemer, but soul material has entered into the vaults of our banks and rate, time and volume have a new basis of rockealing in so far as the ability of some of the bankers permit them to co-operate in promoting the business of farming.

God Almighty's Noblemen.

These bankers are God Almighty's noblemen. Heaven lent earth the spirit of these men and the angels will help them roll in place the cornerstone of empires. They are not philanthropists; they are wise bankers. The spirit of the builder has given them a new vision, and wisdom has visited upon them business foresight.

The cockle of the hen, the low of kine and the rustle of growing crops echo in every bank vault in the nation and the shrewd banker knows that he can more effectively increase his deposits by putting blue blood in the veins of livestock; quality in the yield of the soil and value into agricultural products than by business handshakes, overdraths and gaudy calendars.

We are opposed to the equal rights of woman—we want her to remain our superior. We consider woman's desire to seek man's love the yellow peril of Twentieth Century civilization.

Woman is the medium through which angels whisper their messages to mankind; it is her hand that plants thoughts in the intellectual vineyard; it is through her heart that hope, and sympathy overflow and bless mankind. Christ—the liberator of woman—was satisfied to teach the lessons of life and he was a man. He chose to rule over human hearts and refused worldly power and men followed after him, women washed his feet, little children climbed upon his knees and the Ruler of the universe said that in him he was well pleased. Can woman find a higher calling?

WHY SHOULD WOMEN VOTE?

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF LEADING FARMERS.

By Peter Radford.

Why should women vote? That is the question that is ringing from ocean to ocean and reverberating from the Canadian boundary to the Mexican border. It is the mission of a newspaper to give the news and the action of the Texas Farmers' Union in opposing woman's suffrage when that question was recently before the Texas legislature is significant as representing the attitude of the organized plowmen. We reproduce in part the argument presented by I. W. Lewis, president of the Texas Farmers' Union, in opposing the bill:

"It is gratifying to note that it is not the farmer's wife who is clamoring for the ballot. She is too busy trying to make happier homes, molding the minds of future citizens and sharing with her husband the cares of life to indulge in political gossip. The ballot will give her no relief from drudgery, give no assistance in elating the children or bring to the home additional comforts, conveniences or opportunities a la life. It is, as a rule, the city woman promoted to idleness by prosperity, who is leading the suffrage movement.

"From many standpoints, perhaps a woman has as much right to vote as a man. So she has as much right to plow as a man; she has as much right to work in a factory as a man; she has as much right to shoulder a musket as a man, but we would rather see her use her plant flowers than sow wheat; gather bouquets than pick cotton and rear children than raise political issues, although she may have as much right to do one as the other.

Opposed to Unsexing Humanity.

"Sex qualification for suffrage may have its apparent inconsistencies. No general rule adjusts itself perfectly to all conditions. It is a favorite argument advanced by the proponents of woman's suffrage that may cultivate and noble women are far more capable of intelligently exercising sovereignty than a worthless negro, but the South never was anxious for negro suffrage, nad with culture and refinement, and even morality, are desirable virtues, they are not the only qualifications for franchise.

"The primary, inherent and inseparable fitness for suffrage is supporting a family. The plow handle, the forge and open conveyances for public hire.

A Lawrence county man was in West Liberty Monday, and while here called at the Courier office and was interviewed touching the Commonwealth's Attorney's race, and he said H. C. Sullivan who, had never mixed with the people like Castle does, that he had been a candidate on several occasions and could not get any votes; that Castle would carry almost all of the votes in his section. He exhibited about thirty letters from all sections of Lawrence, Elliott and Carter counties from men of high standing, all of which show that Castle is very strong and that Sullivan is not in the race. Akers says that Sullivan is not regarded as a factor in the race. (Adv.)

The People Organize.

The citizens of Morgan county met here Monday 1,000 strong to perfect an organization the purpose of which is to resist the operations of certain dealers in wild cat land titles in this (Morgan) and adjoining counties. The meeting was called to order by Judge Amos Davis and addressed by Attorney John Morgan Perry. At the close of Mr. Perry's speech the following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Upon motion of Frank Kennard and seconded by divers of citizens, the following resolutions were adopted by the whole body of the people assembled.

First, We the people of Morgan County heartily endorse the action of the Licking Valley Courier in the investigation and exposure of extensive deals in wild cat land claims in this and adjoining counties, acquainting us all with the character and wide extent of these fraudulent transactions whereby a paecocerated and thoroughly organized swindle by those piratical wild-catters has been made, and is being continued, to disturb us in the enjoyment of our homes, to rob us of the fields and forests inherited from our fathers, and to drive us and our children from our fire sides and give the fruits of our long years of toil to scheming land sharks from the North and East who are strangers to our county and to us, having no interest in our County or our welfare, but seeking only to feed and fatten upon the fruits of our toil and our heritage from our fathers.

We hereby pledge our loyal support to the Licking Valley Courier and to every other agency employed for the purpose of further unearthing these gigantic land frauds, and so far as possible and feasible, to expose to the contempt and scorn of the community the persons who have initiated, propagated and perfected those wild-cat land deals and punish by legal penalties if possible, but in all events with social and commercial ostracism.

Second, We direct that a Central-Executive Committee of five citizens and land owners, residing at or near West Liberty, be appointed, and direct that said Committee shall make a thorough investigation of the records of the County Court Clerks Office, and determine the character and extent of all land transactions in any way bearing mark of suspicion as to their genuineness and good faith or their strict legality, and that said Committee make and publish a report of its said work as soon as practicable.

Third, That a sub-committee consisting of seventeen members, or one from each voting precinct in Morgan county, be appointed to act in conjunction with the Central Executive Committee; the duties of the members, of which it shall be to meet collectively or individually with the said Central Executive Committee whenever it is deemed necessary for the purpose of making reports in their individual localities and to discuss plans to meet and cope with any adverse conditions which may arise.

Fourth, That the following shall compose the committees: Central Executive Committee: S. R. Collier, I. C. Ferguson, W. G. Blair, Chas. P. Henry and H. G. Cottle.

Sub-committee: J. R. Kendall, Amos Davis, Luther Pieratt, Holly Carpenter, T. H. Testerman, Celburn Nickell, J. P. Morris, Ollie Lacy, D. M. Cox, J. R. Cox, Harve Howard, Willie Stuey, Joe Cole, J. H. Strickland, H. B. Franklin, C. C. May.

Fifth, That the proceedings of this meeting, together with these resolutions, be published in the Licking Valley Courier and tendered to the Morehead Mountaineer, Hazel Green Herald, Big Sandy News, Mt. Sterling Advocate, Sentinel-Democrat, Mt. Sterling Gazette, Frenchburg Agitator, Lexington Herald, Louisa Herald and Cincinnati Enquirer for publication.

W. D. O'NEAL.

Oliver Quits Race.

Editor Courier.

Having shied my castor in the political arena some time ago and decided to engage in a friendly whirl with the boys for the Democratic nomination for Representative of this district, and having later on had the good fortune to be appointed post master of Campbell, a fairly good job for a modest and unassuming man like myself, I now desire to doff my sombrero to the public and retire from active politics on my own account for the present, and in doing so I want to thank all my friends in Wolfe and Morgan for their friendship and proffered help and support when I was a candidate. Whenever an opportunity presents itself it will be a very great pleasure to me "to re-quit your loves." I quit this race for the reason above stated free from entangling alliance with any candidate and leaving my friends at perfect liberty to vote and support the man of their choice without let or hindrance from me. Again I thank you for the kindness shown me and the encouragement I received while I was in the race.

Yours very truly,
A. C. OLIVER.

Circuit Court.

The regular June term of the Morgan Circuit Court convened here Monday with Judge M. M. Redwine on the bench and Jno. M. Waugh, Attorney for the State, in his accustomed place.

We didn't hear the court's charge to the grand jury but one informed that it was along the usual line with emphasis on the offense of the illicit sale of whisky and carrying concealed deadly weapons.

Up to the time of going to press only a part of the misdemeanor docket had been disposed of. Several convictions for minor offenses have been made.

Petit Jury—Kelly Carter, W. T. Caskey, T. H. McClure, John Dehart, Joe R. Wells, Matt Lewis, Lewis Henry, James Havens, L. B. Rose, M. W. Pieratt, George Fanin, Lee Payne, Jim Nickell, Allen Oakley, J. D. Henry, Clarence Havens, Curt Walters, S. M. Ferguson, P. N. Chaney, Herbert Nickell, John Watson, John R. Day, Tom Henry Johnston, Elijah Smith, John A. Cox, J. W. Bailey, John McClain, James W. Roberson, Powel Lewis, Alfred Davis.

Grand Jury—Math Wells, H. C. Swango, J. W. Henry, John Smith Nickell, (foreman) A. T. McGuire, James Dennis, R. K. Nickell, Marian Phillips, Dar Davidson, J. D. Hunter, A. J. Hamilton, J. H. Ratliff.

Stanley At Elizabethtown.

He is declaring everywhere that McChesney and Woodrow Wilson are at variance on the liquor question, and that he, Stanley, agreed with Woodrow Wilson and McChesney agreed with the Anti-Saloon League which is bitterly against President Wilson.

Stanley also agrees with the Democratic platform and McChesney disagrees with it. Now Elizabethtown has an editor there who is known all over Kentucky as one of the most sincere and unfeared advocates of true temperance in the United States.

Mr. Sommers believes in the County Unit law and stands with President Wilson for Local Option. He helped write the Democratic platform which copied the very language of President Wilson.

It proclaims that the liquor question is a social and moral question and has no proper place in politics. It was with special interest, therefore, that the friends of Mr. Stanley awaited this speech at Elizabethtown the home of Mr. Sommers. The ovation given him there is just what might have been expected from a real Democratic community which declines to be run dry the enemies of Woodrow Wilson. (Adv.)

THE WINNER

JOHN M. WAUGH

Was born in Carter county in 1873. Was reared in Lawrence county. Raised on a farm. Worked hard to aid his parents, who were poor, to rear nine children, he being the oldest. Obtained most of his limited education by the light of the lamp after work hours. Has had a struggle all of his life and is still struggling. Has fought his way up through life at every step, and is still fighting. He is willing to fight on, and at all times only invites a fair, square fight in the open. Knows and is true to his friends.

He is a democrat of the truest mettle, but willing to concede every man a right to his own opinion. Has been in the front of his party's battles for 25 years, and this is the only office he ever held. Fights just as hard against odds as for a sure victory. Never in life failed to go to an election and support his party's nominees.

If you vote for him you KNOW you will vote for a true Democrat.

Go to every docket in the District and compare their condition with 7, 8 and 10 years ago. He invites inquiry into his official record.

The democrats of Carter county have struggled for years with an overwhelming majority of the opposition. This office of Commonwealth's Attorney is the only one they have ever at any time asked or held, and they come to you now, asking, almost as a unit, that you endorse, again, the record of John M. Waugh in this office.

Ask yourself the question, "Why should we turn him down for Mr. Sullivan or Mr. Castle and lose the District to the democratic Party?"—Carter County News.

I heartily endorse all that the News has said with reference to John M. Waugh. I have known John Waugh for more than twenty years; first as a student whom I had the honor to teach at Denison Academy; second, as a law student in Carter county; third, as a lawyer at the bar; and fourth, as an official in the capacity of Commonwealth's Attorney.

I have noted with interest his struggles to get an education, teaching part of the time for expense money and burning midnight oil at study the balance of the year. Then came his struggle for a legal education and a place at the Carter county bar, and lastly his reward came with his victory over all obstacles, and John M. Waugh took a place among the leading lawyers of Eastern Kentucky, and the people chose him for their legal guardian in his judicial district.

That John M. Waugh has made an honest, efficient, untiring official is not questioned by the people. Those who charge him with laxness in the discharge of his duties can not prove their case by the criminals of this district. They fear him as they would a tiger in the jungle. Why should he be retired because he has served the people faithfully? His former services are the loudest arguments for his re-election. No better official can be found, and we shall go far indeed before we find one so efficient, so honest, so faithful.

JOHN MORGAN PERRY,

Blaze, Ky., July 1, 1915.

HENRY C. SULLIVAN

Called by his party representatives and many personal friends.

First candidate from Lawrence county for district office in 30 years.

His friends, who know him worthy, qualified and fully competent, and needing assistance, are urging his election.

He has been Chairman of the Lawrence County Executive Committee for many years, and each year gave marked success. He was elected County Chairman again in 1914, and the Representative and Senator were elected from his district.

He made speeches for his party during the last campaign, and all along life's journey when called. He will continue to love all mankind, regardless of the result of this campaign, and earnestly solicits your support.
